

Healthy Relationships

Raising awareness of Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE)

The programme is delivered over 7 two-hour sessions which encourage discussion and debate. The programme can be tailored for both male and female groups, and groups can be single sex or mixed.

“This is the best and most effective training for young people. It was hard hitting but it served as a wakeup call on how severe an issue CSE is.”

“Youth Workers made the examples very real and it enabled better reflection amongst the young people.”

We will work with you to:

- Raise young people's awareness of CSE
- Encourage young people to understand different relationships, healthy and unhealthy
- Equip young people with the knowledge to be able to make informed and safe choices
- Develops young people's resilience and self-esteem
- Enable young people to develop support networks and know where to go for help.
